History and Accreditation

Central Florida Junior College was established in 1957 when community leaders and citizens envisioned an educational resource that would help Marion, Citrus and Levy counties to grow and prosper. In 1966, CFJC and Hampton Junior College merged. In 1971, the name was changed to Central Florida Community College to better reflect the purpose and function of the institution. In 2010 the name was changed to College of Central Florida. CF is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award associate and baccalaureate degrees. Contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Ga. 30033-4087 or call 404-679-4500 for questions about the accreditation of CF.
